

Jan Th 11 1858

Dear Mother

It is with a great pleasure that I

write to you

now. He is sitting down and

I have been thinking of you

very much

if you don't

write soon

I shall be very glad